Privacy Notices – Contractors and Self Employed

Who we are

For the purposes of Data Protection legislation, the Academy Trust, Anglian Learning, is the Data Controller. This means it is in charge of personal data about you.

The postal address of the Trust is:

Bottisham Village College
Lode Road
Bottisham
Cambridge
CB25 9DL

The role of the Data Protection Officer for the Trust is being undertaken by The ICT Service. Our Data Officer at The ICT Service is Paul Stratford who can be contacted on 01480 373229 or paul.stratford@theictservice.org.uk.

In this policy 'we' and 'us' means the Academy Trust.

The categories of school information that we process include:

- Personal information (such as name, address, national insurance number)
- Contract information (such as start date, service to be provided, payment terms)
- Financial information (such as bank account details)
- Sensitive information (Special category personal data), DBS information

How we use your information

We process personal data relating to those we contract to undertake work at our schools. This is for contractual purposes and to safeguard the pupils within our care.

This personal data includes identifiers such as names, addresses and date of birth.

Collecting and using your information in this way is lawful because:

- The processing is necessary for the performance of the contract and in the case of special category personal data (i.e. sensitive information) processing that personal data is necessary for performing or exercising obligations or rights which are conferred on us or by law in connection with your contract.
- The processing is necessary for the performance of a legal obligation to which the Academy Trust is subject, for example our legal duty to safeguard pupils
- In the case of special category personal data, the processing is necessary for a safeguarding purpose i.e. to protect pupils from harm. This is in the substantial public interest.
- The processing is necessary for the performance of our education function which is a function in the public interest.

How we collect your information

When we collect personal information on our forms, we will make it clear whether there is a legal requirement for you to provide it, and whether there is a legal requirement on the school / academy trust to collect it. If there is no legal requirement then we will explain why we need it and what the consequences are if it is not provided.

How we share your information with third parties

We will not share information about you with third parties without your consent unless the law allows us to.

We disclose personal data about you to the Disclosure and Barring Service for the purposes of carrying out checks on your suitability for work with children.

We may disclose details about you including national insurance number to our payroll provider to enable you to be paid.

Our Payroll providers are:

Education Personnel Management
St Johns House
Spitfire Close
Ermine Business Park
Huntingdon
Cambridgeshire
PE29 6EP
<https://www.epm.co.uk/contact/>

We may share your identity and pay information with HMRC in conjunction with your legal obligation to pay income tax and make national insurance contributions.

Our disclosures to third parties are lawful because one of the following reasons applies:

- The disclosure is necessary for the performance of your contract
- The disclosure is necessary for the performance of a legal obligation to which the Academy Trust is subject, for example our legal duty to safeguard pupils
- The disclosure is necessary to protect the vital interests of others, i.e. to protect students from harm
- The disclosure is necessary for the performance of our education function which is a function in the public interest.

How long we keep your personal information

We only keep your information for as long as we need it or for as long as we are required by law to keep it. Full details are given in our records retention policy which can be found on the Anglian Learning website.
